THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Brief Notes and Items of Interest and Importance.

Evangelistic services begin at Christian church next Lord's day, November 13th. Services each evening at 7:30. J. J. Evans of Salem will do the preaching. The music department of the Women's club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. C. Lewis on Friday evening, November 11, at 8:45 o'clock. The subject for the afternoon will be "The Origin and Development of German Opera."

Geo. Callhoun left Tuesday morning for San Francisco to look over the samples and select goods for his new stock. Mr. Callhoun has taken a five year lease on the Howard corner, formerly occupied by Smith Bros, and will put in new and complete line of clothing and goods furnishings. Deputy Sheriff Ernest Lister and Thomas Galvin spent Sunday at Helgate rapids angling for salmon trout, and they report their catch at 22 big fish, a statement that is believed implicitly by their friends who are familiar with their fine reputation for veracity, especially when telling fish stories. R. N. Bishop, civil engineer and mine expert for the Greenback Company, returned to the Greenback mine Tuesday after being in Grants Pass several days on business for his company. Mr. Bishop is now superintending the lower Hillman and the scenic ledge, a promising property owned by the Greenback Company and situated about a mile from the Greenback mine. It has 15 men employed working on three tunnels, two of which are in 300 feet and one in 60 feet. The ledge is showing up well, but whether it will justify a mill or not is yet to be ascertained.

W. J. Smith, of the Selma merchant, who is in Grants Pass this week on a business visit, reports good times in his district with promise of better and more lively times in the future. It is likely that some of the new properties of the lower Hillman district will soon be opened and that new life will soon develop in that camp. This district is full of mineral and has many good mines of gold and copper undeveloped. The lower Hillman adjacent districts are offering fine opportunities to the prospector as there is a large area of land known to bear mineral which is almost virgin ground as far as systematic prospecting is concerned. C. T. Furness returned Saturday from Jacksonville where he had been for a couple of days looking over that place with a view of putting in a "great" furnishing and shoe store. He also has other locations in view, but is very favorably pleased with the trade prospects of Jacksonville that have come to the old town as a result of the recent mining activity in that district. Mr. Furness has for the past year and a half been in charge of the store at the Greenback mine, but desiring to secure better trade facilities for his children, resigned his position and will move to some town. Mr. Furness is a bright, hustling business man and has a high standing in the trade world and will be a good acquisition to the town that he may locate in.

L. G. Higgins of Higgins & Phillips, assayers, and a well known mining man of this district recently had a narrow escape from losing his right hand by blood poisoning. While working on a quartz property, he was on an upper tributary of Illinois river in Curry county, he bruised his hand, injuring the middle finger, being anxious to reach his home he did not remain at the mine treating his injury with such remedies as were available. But the injury grew worse and he returned to Grants Pass and consulted Dr. P. L. Lewis, who operated on his hand. Necrosis had set in on the entire bone of the little finger, making it necessary to take off the finger back of the wrist joint. The operation was successful and the swelling and pain has been allayed and the wound is now healing with every prospect that Mr. Higgins will save the remainder of his hand, though it will be some time before he can resume work in his assaying office. Rev. F. Sack, pastor of the German Lutheran church in Medford, came to Grants Pass Saturday evening to address the ladies of the Advent church building. Rev. Sack holds a regular service the first Sabbath in each month in this city and for the present, through the courtesy of the Advertiser, he will use their church building, but it is the hope of the Lutherans to erect a building of their own within the next year. Rev. Sack has been a pastor for 20 years and is an indefatigable worker, and he has built up the Lutheran church at Medford to be one of the strong religious organizations of Rogue river valley and should be congratulated for his untiring labors in Grants Pass last spring, yet this soon, good results are coming from his efforts, and his services are well attended and the congregation is steadily increasing in numbers. Early in the spring, Rev. Sack hopes to organize a Sunday school for the benefit of the young people of his congregation.

Geo. W. Stapleton and Mrs. Stapleton arrived by the 10 o'clock train Saturday and remained over until Sunday morning, guests at the Hotel Josephine, when they returned to their home in Portland. Mr. Stapleton was here to address the republican rally held Saturday evening at the opera house. This was Mr. Stapleton's first visit to Rogue river valley and she was greatly pleased with the points of interest to be seen. During the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Stapleton were shown about the city by Geo. H. Durham, Joseph Moss and W. C. Cole, and Wm. Goodwin assisted in interpreting Mrs. Stapleton. It had been some time since Mr. Stapleton had been in Grants Pass, and he noted the many improvements that have been made in the city and the large number of substantial business blocks and fine residences that are now under course of construction and he was frank to say that he had seen no town in Oregon that had made a better growth the past year than has Grants Pass. Mr. Stapleton is a member of Covert & Stapleton, one of the big firms of Portland. Rev. W. G. Connell has resigned the pastorate of St. Anthony's Presbyterian church and left for Medford last Thursday evening. The church has not yet acted upon his resignation, though a congregational meeting called for that purpose will be held on Thursday evening, but the resignation is more or less sensational reports concerning his resignation, which have appeared in the Portland Telegram and in the Grants Pass Herald, and which have been widely copied and disseminated, and have been founded very largely upon misstatements, many of the statements having absolutely no foundation in fact, and all of the articles in question being greatly in error and entirely misleading. On account of indiscreet actions on the part of Mr. Connell, the church is unanimous in the belief that his usefulness in the church has ceased, and while there may be enough to warrant the church in asking for his resignation as pastor, a grave injustice has been done when his resignation has been so widely mentioned and printed and published. They can never be recalled and to amount of correction or even retracting can counteract their effects.

P. H. HARTH & SON,

Outfitters to Particular People GRANTS PASS, OREGON.

A Sniff of Autumn is in the air . . .

An ounce of prevention, you know, is worth a pound of cure, and if you are a man of prudent judgment you will provide yourself with clothing of heavier weight and take no chance of catching a Fall cold trying to get a little longer wear out of your thin and seedy Summer Suit.

We are now displaying some particularly snappy Fall styles for Men selected from the best productions of Schloss Bros. & Co. The Fine Clothes Makers, whose celebrated ready-to-wear clothing has raised the standard in Men's Apparel.

You will find fit and grace in cut, quality in fabric and honest workmanship in the making. Add to these the fact that you have seen nothing like these clothes, and you have exclusiveness. Take these points together, and you have the foundation for the fame of superiority enjoyed by Schloss Hand Tailored Clothing.

Contest For Dixie Queen Mine.

The evidence in the land contest case of W. C. Long vs. Oregon & California railroad company was taken before County Clerk S. F. Chesire, Wednesday, H. D. Norton appearing for Mr. Long and A. S. Hammond for the Railroad Company. The land in question is 80 acres in section 30 on a map of Joe creek and embraces the Dixie Queen mine. The railroad company is seeking to gain a patent to the land as a part of their grant, and their right is resisted by Mr. Long, who claims that it is mineral in its land grant.

MARRIED.

WRIGHT - DAVIS - At Portland, Tuesday, November 1, 1904, W. G. Wright and Mrs. Gertrude Davis.

BORN.

RANDLE - In this city, Friday, November 4, 1904, to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Randle, a son.

Mr. Randle, wishing the baby named after the successful presidential candidate, had the selection of the name deferred until after Tuesday. The youngster may be congratulated on the result of the election, as the name of Alton Brooks Parker Randle would doubtless have retarded its growth.

DECEASED.

STEWART - In Santa Barbara, Cal., Wednesday, November 21, 1904, Geo. H. Stewart, aged 33 years.

Moving Picture Show.

J. W. Cook's moving picture show entertained crowded houses at this place Monday and Tuesday evenings of this week. This is a show of more than usual merit. The pictures are up-to-date and his apparatus of the latest patterns. His illustrated songs, as sung by Bert Richmond who also played the piano accompaniment, was one of the special and pleasing features. -Silverton Appeal.

To Give Flower Show.

A flower show will be held by the Women's club on November 18 and 19, in the Sandberg brick building on Sixth street near the mining exhibit rooms. The committee in charge has recommended that it include not only chrysanthemums but all varieties of plants and flowers. The object of the festival is to create a greater interest in the culture of plants and flowers, to further beautify the city and to make the homes more attractive. No admission fee will be charged and no premiums will be awarded, but the persons exhibiting the best single varieties or collections of potted plants or cut flowers will receive honorable mention or be awarded ribbons by the club as judges of excellence.
